Dated 20.04.2020

Circular on resumption of West Bengal State Quota, Private Management Quota and NRI Quota PG Counseling Medical and Dental seats 2020 due to recent covid-19 situation

In view of the recent covid-19 situation and the notification received from the Office of ADGME, New Delhi, Govt. of India, bearing memo no U-12021/44/2019/15-MEC dated 09.04.2020 and the communication No. U-12021/44/2019-MEC dated 15.04.2020 from the Office of ADGME to the Secretary General, BoG MCI that is hoisted in the website of MCI, the round 1 PG West Bengal State Quota, Private Management Quota and NRI Quota PG Counseling Medical and Dental seats 2020 would resume from 20th April 2020 and would be concluded by 4th May 2020 .

The candidates who have qualified in NEET PG 2020 or NEET MDS 2020 and have enrolled successfully in the pre counseling phase earlier vide notice no HFW-23099/24/2020/M/547 dated 18.03.2020, are hereby directed to send their scanned copy of the original documents needed for verification (as per the notice HFW-23099/24/2020/M/547 dated 18.03.2020) to the concerned college/Swasthya Bhavan authority through the dedicated email created for such purpose (will be notified separately in www.wbmcc.nic.in website), where they were supposed to attend with original credentials for verification as was stipulated earlier.

Such scanned documents shall be prepared and sent only as single PDF format from the candidate email created by the candidate himself/herself during pre counseling phase of West Bengal PG Medical and Dental counseling 2020 within the stipulated time frame (revised schedule of counseling will be notified separately in www.wbmcc.nic.in website).

If the documents are found to be incomplete /inadequate /improper/false/fabricated/non-readable or such response is not received within due date as per revised schedule, then such request for verification will not be entertained and the candidate will not be treated as verified candidate and thus shall not be eligible for counseling as per the notice HFW-23099/24/2020/M/547 dated 18.03.2020.

It may be pertinent to mention that upon receiving the email requests for verification, the concerned college/authority will download the scanned documents as sent by the candidates and verify based on such documents and would recommend acceptance or rejection of application as applicable.

The nodal officers of such college/authority shall visit the dedicated NIC software for online verification after they have come to the conclusion/decision based on scanned copies received from such candidates.

The candidate shall be able to electronically download the result of verification from website www.wbmcc.nic.in through the menu/link that would be provided for them once the concerned college/authority verifies through the dedicated NIC software as mentioned above.

After the verification is over the provisional list of eligible candidates for Round 1 with State Serial number shall be published and if any candidate has any grievance, they can communicate the same to Counseling Committee within next day (as per revised schedule).

After that the final list of eligible candidates for Round 1 with State serial number shall be published and no further communication in this regard shall be entertained.

After that, the registration, choice filling and choice locking facility for the final listed candidates will be made available in the website www.wbmcc.nic.in as per revised schedule of counseling along with publication of college information, seat matrix, frequently asked questions and counseling process (shall be published in the website www.wbmcc.nic.in in due course).

The result shall be processed by the system and would be published in the aforementioned website as per revised schedule.
