Notice for Extension of NEET UG Medical and Dental West Bengal Round 2
Counseling schedule regarding

In view of the notices published by the All India Counseling Authority vide Ref. U-11011/05/2022-MEC dated 11-11-2022 and Ref. U-12021/05/2022-MEC dated 11-11-2022, the opportunity for seat surrender/resignation is once again allowed for the admitted candidates in Round 1 of West Bengal Medical and Dental NEET UG 2022 counseling without any bond penalty. Hence candidates who want to resign their seats of round 1 can do so on 14.11.2022 and 16.11.2022 (both the days between 11 am till 4 pm as per server time) upon personal appearance only. They have to apply in pen and paper to college authority for such seat surrender. After 4 pm of 16.11.2022, the remaining admitted candidates of Round 1 shall be considered as part of Round 2 and same rules shall be applied on them as applicable for Round 2 counseling.

Candidates are advised to ensure that their resignation letter is generated online by the college authority through web portal provided by WBMCC otherwise such resignation shall be treated as null and void. In such a case candidate shall be deemed to be occupying the said seat. Any letter other than that generated through WBMCC admin portal provided to the college authority shall not be considered as resignation letter.

In case candidate has given option of upgradation in round 2, participates in round 2 counseling but not upgraded, shall be considered as not upgraded and they shall remain admitted in the seat of round 1. They cannot resign and have to retain the seat as admitted candidate information has to be shared with All India authority after completion of the admission process of Round 2 WB counseling 2022.
